About the event

The Los Angeles Professional Diversity Virtual Career Fair on November 1 will attract a higher volume of qualified diverse candidates in Los Angeles, including the often elusive passive candidates with great experience in multiple industries.

Your brand and corporate culture is shared with potential candidates in Los Angeles, representing a significant pool of hundreds of qualified professionals.

Match your jobs with the right candidates: We encourage candidates to register early. Employers will have access the candidate profile/resume database prior to the fair and may schedule chat (text, audio or video) interviews in advance.

Benefits of our Hiring Events

Reach more and better diverse professionals. Our outreach and network reaches both passive and active job seekers generating a new marketplace of talent. Our user-friendly platform provides advance access to candidate, live interaction, applies, resume database and post event report.

Some of our Diversity Partners include:
